

DWARF BLACK SUNFLOWERS

- Dwarf Black Sunflowers are very popular as a food plot for doves, quail, ducks and other larger migrating fowl.
- Contains high quality oil content needed for the healthy growth of all wildlife species. Plants are preferred by deer when they are young and still growing.
- Can be mixed with a number of other varieties of seed to create a specific wildlife food plot.

Attracts	Birds and other Wildlife
Food Source	Seeds, Leaves and Plants
Seeding Rate	10 – 40 lbs. per acre
Seeding Dates	April – June
Lifecycle	Annual
Days to Maturity	90 – 110